

Rest

Getting a good night's sleep improves your memory, mood and mental health.

Relaxing is also important because it makes us feel calmer. Walking or wheeling may take longer than driving. You might need to go to bed earlier so you don't wake up too late!

What time do you need to set off from home to make sure your journey to school is stress free?