

Interest

Having special interests and learning something new keeps your brain busy.

On your school journey could you;

Find out more about the history of any old buildings you travel passed?

Use maps to discover more about the geography of your local area?

Research and identify plants and animals that you see?

Share what you find out with us @be_travel_smart

